

Naming Opportunities

Ground Floor

Entry Lobby/Vestibule $75,000

Patrons entering the library from the main parking lot are welcomed by the bluestone floors and cherry wood paneling of the vestibule and lobby. The bronze and cherry wood donor recognition wall will be the most prominent visual feature of the lobby space. Designed to serve as the main reception space for the adjacent Community Room, the entry lobby may be accessed outside of normal library operating hours. The entry lobby also provides direct access to the Circulation Lobby.

Community Room $250,000

With flexible seating 150 guests, the Community Room is expected to become a favorite gathering place for lectures, presentations, exhibits, musical performances, and group meetings. The room can be divided into two smaller spaces allowing simultaneous programming. Walls overlooking the lobby are comprised of opaque glass, allowing natural light to enter while screening out with distractions. The remainder of the room is paneled in warm cherry wood complemented by carpeted floor and bronze burnished light fixtures. The room is wired for sound and audiovisual presentations. Contingent to the entry lobby/vestibule the room may be accessed outside of normal library operating hours.

Pantry $10,000

Located off the Community Room, the Pantry includes a sink, refrigerator, microwave and cabinets to allow the serving of light refreshments during Community Room events.

Circulation Lobby $150,000

The heart of the library, the Circulation Lobby is the hub of all activity within the library. From the Lobby, patrons can receive assistance and information from the Circulation Desk, or continue on to the Children's Room, the Fiction Wing and Audio-visual collections, or the second floor. Designed as a welcoming and open space, the Circulation Lobby is distinguished by its bluestone floors and cherry paneled walls, punctuated by the new circulation desk.

Elevator $15,000

Children's Room $150,000

The Children's Room is designed for children from toddlers to eighth grade. This welcoming 6,310 square feet of space is located directly off the Circulation Lobby for easy access from the library parking lot. This space includes the book and audiovisual collections, individual computer stations and study carrels, a play area and reading alcove, a craft room and story hour room.

Children's Craft Room $25,000

A dedicated 480 square foot space for children's craft programs is a key feature of the Children's Craft Room. This flexible space has an in room sink and storage, as well as pin-up and display areas. The Craft Room is painted in bright colors and floored with linoleum.

Children's Reference Room $50,000
 Reference materials are separated from the rest of the children's room to allow for quiet study and research. Access to the collection is via a gentle up ramp or stairs. Shelving is at a child friendly-height and study tables and computers are available.

Main Floor

Reference Desk $15,000
 Centrally located in the Reference Room the Reference Desk is convenient to the reference collection, computer stations, the Local History/Genealogy, and the Laura Willgoose Archive rooms. The cherry wood desk with a granite top reflects the serious work conducted in the Reference Room.

Reference Room $100,000
 This space encourages research and life-long learning. Computer stations with Internet and catalog access and study carrels are located here, adjacent to the Reference Desk. The space is a mixture of carpet and cork, and will have large windows, allowing views over Rosemary Street and toward downtown Needham. This area is centrally located for all patrons who also want to access the archives, local history, periodicals and non-fiction collection.

Non-Fiction Wing $50,000
 Needham is a town of life-long learners. This light filled stack area contains the non-fiction collection. Individual study carrels are located along the west wall. Books stack ends are a rich cherry wood complimenting the soothing wall colors.

Local History/Genealogy Room $25,000
 Do you want to see what your house looked like in the 1950's? Are you tracking your family tree? This is the place to come. The Local History/Genealogy Room is located off the Gallery and adjacent to the Laura Willgoose Archives. Tables with chairs will provide space to spread out materials while doing research.

Administration Floor

Conference Room $25,000
 This conference room is designed for library related group meetings for up to 15 people. Trustee's meetings and small Friend's committee meetings will be held in here.

Director's Office & Reception area $25,000
 Located on the administrative floor the Director's office will be paneled in cherry with a carpeted floor and windows over look the spectacular view of Rosemary Lake.

Staff Room $10,000

Outdoors

Bench $5,000
 Tree $500 each